MIAMI, Fla. — What the Miami Chamber of Commerce calls the "Dixie's Greatest Girl Show," unfolded before the eyes of at least 350,000 persons — including Husker footballers and thousands of Nebraska rooters—Friday night.

Majorettes and twirlers by the scores strutted before some 30 bands and drum corps, and the hundreds of other girls who glamorized at least 50 colorful floats brought the feminine cast of the New Year's eve King Orange jamboree parade to well over 1,000.

Part of the cavalcade of charm was beamed over CBS-TV to the nation, but lucky on-the-spot viewers here followed it from street-fronting hotel rooms, grand stands, curbstones, palm trees or any spot where a glimpse of the beauty might be obtained.

'America Sings'

The Nebraska team and members of the official party and press watched the extravaganza-deluxe from a special grandstand.

Climaxed by the Orange Bowl queen's float, the "America Sings" theme section of 10 striking pageants on wheels depicted lullabies, folk songs, patriotic airs, western music, semi-classics, opera, Hawaiian (Husker favorites) and hit tunes. More than 50 exotically costumed girls were aboard them.

Preceded by the Miami police motorcycle drill team, the parade was led by the USAF drum and bugle corps, complete with bagpipes, and the 1100th Security Squadron (Air Police) drill team from Washington, D. C.

Five cute WAF's from Lackland AF Base, Tex., were on the largest float in any Orange parade, which featured models of "flying box cars."

Then came the University of Nebraska band, which never seemed to stop playing or getting huge ovations—especially from the Cornhusker bleachers.

Other bands were from Duke and Miami U, various high schools from this area and Michigan, Minnesota and New York.

One Miami majorette, Sandy Wirth, twirled with the Hurricane band, and then with the assistance of a motorcycle and quick costume change, reappeared at the end of the parade as a princess on the queen's float.

A particularly impressive float included a huge papier mache "Father Time," eight feet tall while seated. Another depicted ancient Egypt and the 1955 Cleopatra would make Anthony's Cleopatra a little green with envy.

Real Jockeys

Race horses with real jockeys were part of the Hialeah race track's presentation.

After the parade a party was held at the "Top of the Columbus" Hotel for the working press and a limited number from the official parties from Duke and Nebraska.

Wayne Teater, 23, of the same address, suffered a broken nose and bruises.

—Old '54 Moves Out—
Prayers, Whoopee
Welcome In 1955

By The Associated Press

The nation welcomed the new year last night (Friday) with merry making, church services and the start of a yearlong prayer for peace.

President and Mrs. Eisenhower scheduled a dinner party in the trophy room at the Augusta, Ga., National Golf Club. There was no special guest list. Many were the President's golfing companions and their wives.

In Times Square, New York City's traditional whoopee center, merchants barricaded their store windows to prevent damage by the crush of merry-makers.

A half a million persons jammed into Times Square to welcome 1955 with a deafening din.

A sea of faces, packed like sardines, lined the broad square from wall to wall.

The city itself prepared for a bumper night and 281 more bars than last year paid $10 each to obtain all-night liquor licenses. Merry-makers needed well-heeled wallets to pay for their fun. Conservative estimates placed the bill for one couple at $50 to $100. Minimum dinner prices at New York hotels, for instance, ranged from $7.50 to $15 a person.

Churches of all denominations scheduled Watch-Night services to welcome the new year.

The yearlong prayer for peace was started in the churches of 11 communities across the country. The "chain of prayer," organized by the Board of Evangelism of the Methodist Church, will be taken up by other churches and denominations during the year.

Meantime, the National Safety Council predicted 240 persons would die in traffic accidents during the weekend. In making the announcement, Ned H. Dearborn, council president, told motorists: "We cordially invite you to start the new year by making a bum out of the National Safety Council and its pre-holiday estimate."

Her son, seven-year-old William, suffered a skinned face.

Injured in the other car were William Duffy, 15, of 2346 W, who suffered a concussion, gash on the head and nose and multiple cuts and lacerations. He was reported in "satisfactory condition" at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Also injured was Roger Bell, 15, of 3000 Starr who suffered a two-inch cut over the eye. He was treated at the hospital and later released along with William Moreland.

One-Man Commie
Probes Ruled Out

From Press Reports

Sen. McClellan (D-Ark) pledged in Washington unremitting efforts by the Senate Investigations subcommittee to expose any Communists in government, but he ruled out any one-man hearings. McClellan will succeed Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) as chairman of the subcommittee in the new Democratic controlled Congress that convenes next week.

BOY FINDS FRIENDS — Little Roger Stokeley, of Spartanburg, Ala., almost torn to death by a pair of vicious dogs and in critical condition at a local hospital, found friends. Spontaneous contributions of cash and checks and offers of help began pouring in from people in all walks of life who had read newspaper accounts of his plight and that of his family.

SCALDING ADMITTED — The sheriff's office said a 37-year-old mother signed a statement in Indianapolis admitting she scalded her 4-year-old son to death five years ago. Capt. Morris Settles said Mrs. Lucy Louise Hawkins of Acton admitted giving the coroner a false report in 1949 that the boy's scalding was accidental and also admitted breaking a daughter's arm recently. Mrs. Hawkins, who complained she's "a nervous wreck," will be arraigned Monday on a murder charge.

FOUR KILLED — Four persons were killed in Ramer, Alabama, when a private plane crashed in heavy rain, the Alabama State Patrol reported. The plane was owned by Hoke L. Vandigriff, a prominent Montgomery construction contractor and president of the Montgomery baseball club of the South Atlantic League.

DIAMOND HUNT — A frenzied diamond hunt went on at Prestwick, Scotland around the wreckage of a transatlantic airliner in the bleak lowlands of Prestwick Airport. The prize was estimated at close to three million dollars. The cargo of rough diamonds bound for the United States for cutting and mounting was lost when a plane of the British Overseas Airways Corp. crashed and burned Christmas Eve, killing 28 persons.

DANGER RECEDES — Secretary of State Dulles declared in Washington the free world's ability to bounce back from adversity in 1954 has fostered a unity and strength for dealing with the Communists in 1955. "As a result," he told a news conference, "the danger of general war recedes."

PROPHET SANE — Dr. Charles A. Laughead, the former Michigan State College physician who was discharged for predicting world doom, was found sane in an Ingham County probate court hearing in Lansing, Mich. Two psychiatrists said that although his ideas were "unusual" there was no proof that he was mentally ill. A petition to have Dr. Laughead committed to a mental hospital was dismissed.

Ag Ouster
Explodes
At Capital

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn) called for action "at the White House level" Friday as the uproar over the ousting of Wolf Ladejinsky exploded in a new blast of statements and counter-statements.

The Agriculture Department issued a statement declaring that anti-Semitism played no part in its decision not to continue Ladejinsky in his $11,000 post as agriculture attaché at Tokyo. The department has said he was ousted on security and technical grounds.

What stirred up the latest storm was the action of Milan D. Smith, executive assistant to Secretary of Agriculture Benson, in citing a letter from a White Russian emigre to back up the department's action.

The letter was addressed to Benson. Applauding the ouster, it said that although Ladejinsky might be completely innocent, "facts from his past speak against him." It referred to his past employment by Amtorg, Russian trading agency, and a trip he once made to Russia.

'Worst Kind'

At another point, the eight-page letter said "Regrettably . . . a goodly share of (Russian) revolutionaries were found among the Russian Jews," and that "Jews who turned into Reds or fellow travelers after 1919 were the worst kind of traitors."

The author was identified as George N. Vitt, industrial editor of American Exporter Publications, New York City. Vitt was described as a White Russian who fled from the Bolsheviks in 1919.

He wrote that it was "lamentable" that Sen. Humphrey and Rep. Judd (R-Minn) could be "so naive and uneducated in Commie matters as to defend" Ladejinsky.

Canal May Be
Tied Up 8 Days

Seventy Ships Jammed Up At Both
Ends Of Waterway After Large
Craft Smacks Into Bridge

CAIRO (AP)—An oil tanker blocked the Suez Canal Friday by smashing into a bridge. Seventy ships jammed up at both ends of the waterway. Suez Canal Co. engineers estimated it might take eight days to resume navigation.

The 10,892-ton tanker World Peace, under Liberian registry but owned by a Greek company, veered into the open arms of the swing bridge at 4:40 a.m. The bridge is at El Ferdan, nine miles north of Ismailia.

"The canal is more solidly blocked by the tanker and wreckage than ever by enemy bombs and mines during the war," declared a British army officer at the Suez garrison.

The canal was closed a total of 76 days due to enemy action in World War II.

197-Foot Opening

The bridge is the double-spanned swing type with an opening of 197 feet. It was built by the British Army during the build-up for the Alamein campaign, to carry a railroad across the canal.

It has long been regarded as a menace to navigation and was to be scrapped in another month, a canal spokesman said. When the bridge is opened, the spans run north and south, parallel with the Canal banks.

World Peace, when over halfway through, apparently swung toward the west bank, hit one of the opened spans and carried it off its supports. One end of the 350-ton span jumped into the tanker's superstructure and the other pushed onto the bank.

The tanker was loaded with crude oil so workmen, rushed to the blockage, could not start immediately with acetylene torches to cut away the steel span.

Engineers planned to start operations Saturday to lift the steel span.

Traffic on the Canal is heavy at this season, averaging 35 ships daily.

If the Canal is blocked for as long as eight days it would still take another week to get the backlog cleared up.

$6.5 Million
For Building

Lincoln Star Special

COLUMBUS — A total construction budget of $6,628,900 for the year 1955 was approved by the directors of Consumers Public Power District at a year end meeting here.

A break-down of the budget revealed that a total of $4,575,225 has been allocated for essential improvements in the district's consolidated eastern system and a total of $2,053,675 for the western system.

It is expected that the actual construction accomplished during 1955 will total approximately $3,125,000 in the eastern system and over $400,000 exclusive of the Ogallala steam plant construction in the western system.

The unused balance will be carried over and included in the 1956 budget. Officials of Consumers pointed out that the above amounts are exclusive of any funds for the construction of a steam generating plant in eastern Nebraska as this project is involved in litigation in Platte county district court at this time.

For budget details, see Page 3.

Adenauer Set For Finish Fight

Rearming Tussle Is Brewing

Opposition Comes From Socialists

BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and the opposition Socialists squared off today for a finish fight over West German rearmament.

The French National Assembly's reluctant approval of the Paris treaties to free and rear West Germany as a Western Ally strengthened Adenauer's political position. The big test for ratification by the sharply divided Bonn Parliament comes up in less than a month.

The completion of treaties will bring West Germany and Italy into a Western European Union with Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. This will link West German forces with NATO. The accord also provides for "Europeanizing" the disputed Saar, placing it under control of WEU.

Upper House O.K. Needed
The French upper house still is to pass on the accord and all other NATO members have yet to give final ratification.

The 78-year-old chancellor's aids predicted both houses of Parliament will approve rearmament by a comfortable majority despite deep hostility inside his own coalition to the French-German Saar agreement, an integral part of the treaty pact.

Jubilant over the French vote, the Adenauer forces claimed none of the four government coalition parties here will risk voting against sovereignty and rearmament for West Germany.

Many Obstacles
His supporters conceded, however, that the chancellor still faces many obstacles to his cherished dream of linking West Germany politically and militarily to the free world.

The Socialists, the nation's second largest party, announced immediately after the French vote they will fight the bitter end to back West German rearmament. But Socialist leaders freely admit the Paris vote just about wiped out their last hope of defeating the treaties.

'Joe Must Go' Club Officers Face Troubles

BARABOO, Wis. (AP)—Officers of the Joe Must Go Club of Wisconsin Inc., which earlier Friday was fined $4,200 for violating a state law by organizing as a corporation to seek the recall of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.), faced additional troubles Friday night.

The club, formed last spring in a move to remove Wisconsin's junior senator from office, was fined $200 on each of 21 counts by Circuit Judge Bruce Belluffs, of Neillsville, who heard the case without a jury. The campaign to unseat McCarthy was unsuccessful when the required number of signatures on petitions for a recall election could not be obtained.

The charges were filed by Sauk County Dist. Atty. Harlan Kelley, who also put out sworn complaints against five officers of the organization.

Officers are charged with aiding and abetting the commission of a felony.

Gore Named

Named in the warrants were Leroy Gore, Sauk City editor and club founder; Harold Michels, Amery, club president; Carl Lachmund, Sauk City, treasurer; and Patricia Watt, Whitefish Bay, and Ivan Nestingen, Madison assemblyman-elect, directors.

Under Wisconsin law, no organized corporation may contribute to a political campaign of any kind nor tend to influence an election. Neither may any committee nor organization formed solely for political purposes spend or collect money without filing full financial reports with the secretary of state.

Judge Belluffs held that the club was a corporation formed solely for the removal of Sen. McCarthy and therefore because it was a corporation violated the law by spending money for such a purpose. The judge said he assessed the fines because of this violation.

Banks Win Suit For Lower Tax On Stock; County's Loss $42,990

Bank stocks will be taxed at 4 mills on the dollar the same as other stocks, instead of the 8 mills planned by county assessors, as the result of a Supreme Court ruling Friday.

The opinion held that the 8 mills levy on bank stock is unenforceable under provisions of the state Constitution requiring uniformity as to class.

The ruling came as the result of an original action filed by three Omaha banks against Frank B. Heintze, state treasurer. The banks are the Omaha National, First National and U.S. National.

The banks contended in their petition that the 8 mills rate prescribed by the 1943 Legislature had been repealed by implication as a result of the 1953 act setting the corporate stock rate at 4 mills.

The 1953 act failed to amend the previous rate on bank stocks and the defense argued that an act cannot be repealed by implication.

In the opinion written by Chief Justice Robert Simmons, the court ignored both contentions but held that since the statutes now provide for a corporate stock tax of 4 mills and bank stock at 8 mills the higher rate is unenforceable under the constitutional rule of uniformity.

Right to file a motion for a rehearing in the case was formally waived by the office of Atty. Gen. C. S. Beck.

The tax loss in Lancaster County resulting from the court decision will total $42,990, according to County Assessor Arthur M. Davis. Davis said 21 banks, investment and trust firms are affected: 12 in Lincoln involving $40,530.66 and nine elsewhere in the county involving $2,459.64.

Tax vouchers with the assessment on bank and corporate stock revised to four mills have been turned over to the County Treasurer for those banks or firms which have not made payment as yet, Davis said.

The eight firms making payment on the basis of eight mills will have to claim tax refunds from the treasurer and County Board, Davis said.

One Lincoln bank, Union Bank at 4747 Prescott, has already filed a refund claim, which was rejected by the county board on the recommendation of the county board on the recommendation of the county board.

City Traffic Death Figures Set Record; State Also High

Lincoln concluded a tragic year Friday with a record number of traffic deaths and a near-record number of injury accidents. The state fared little better, finishing its third worst year with 324 deaths.

In this city eight persons died in traffic, the majority of them in the latter part of the year. Besides the fatalities, there were 419 persons injured in 4,335 accidents.

The number of injuries was close to a hundred more than occurred in 1953, 419 to 337.

Of the 11 accidents resulting in deaths in the county, eight were in the boundaries of Lincoln. They were:

1. Charles R. Janacek, 5, February.
2. Mrs. Evelyn L. Duff, 21, August.
3. Mrs. Beverly Jean Jensen, 24, August.

Russ Magazine Finds Liberate Is No Genius

NEW YORK (AP)—The Soviet satirical magazine Krokodil has taken a long look at pianist Liberace and decided he is no genius.

Liberace (somehow the Russians make the name come out Leberice, rhyming with price) was originally intended by his papa to be an under taker, says an issue of the magazine just reaching here.

"Yes," it adds, "papa Leberice was right, in predicting for his son a career of gravedigger. He is indeed the gravedigger of art."

Furthermore, said Krokodil, the same things which produce horror comics, gangster movies and training grounds for "young sadists and murderers" are responsible for Liberace's success.

Krokodil gave its readers a quick thumbnail sketch of the pianist's life, describing him as a good-looking young blade who undeniably has one great gift, "a beautiful thick mop of hair."

Mrs. Duncan, who was bound over to District Court in October, pleaded nolo contendere (no contest) to the charge.

Mrs. Duncan had pleaded not guilty and waived preliminary hearing Oct. 8 in County Court to the information filed by Co. Atty. Frederick Wagner following the death of a 32-year-old Council Bluffs divorcee and mother of four.

The woman was identified in the complaint as Marion Vanness and as Mrs. Miriam N. Van Ness by Council Bluffs authorities.

City's Convention Count Up 4,000

Attendance at conventions held in Lincoln increased by nearly 4,000 over 1953, although four less conventions were held.

The December total dropped to seven, compared with nine in the same month of 1953. However, registration reached 1,198 during the month, compared with 986 a year ago.

Soviet Chief Okays East Negotiations

MOSCOW (Saturday) (AP)—Premier Georgi Malenkov said today he would welcome diplomatic negotiations to settle disagreements in the Far East. But he gave no direct answer to the question whether he would welcome a Big Four conference of heads of government.

The Soviet Premier's statements were made in answer to questions from Charles Edward Shutt, chief of the Washington bureau of Telenews. The questions and answers were published in Pravda, Communist party newspapers.

Asked if he would welcome negotiations leading to a parley between President Eisenhower, Prime Minister Churchill of Britain, Premier Mendes-France of France and himself, Malenkov said it was necessary first of all to point out that the three Western Powers were trying to get together among themselves, without Russia, to settle many world problems, especially those relating to Germany.

"Surely it is clear that such a policy cannot be followed while at the same time illusions of a four-power conference are being scattered among the people of the world," he said.

'At Summit'
Prime Minister Churchill in particular has urged such a conference "at the summit," although lately he has not been pushing it for the immediate future.

In his answers, Malenkov also sent "hearty greetings and best wishes" to the American people on the new year. He reiterated that "peaceful coexistence" and readiness to settle differences with the United States was Soviet policy.

He repeated the Soviet theme that efforts to rear West Germany, the arms race, and a "network of American military bases around the Soviet Union and other peaceloving states" were the chief reasons for existing tension.

As a result of efforts to rear Germany, he declared, "The danger of war is growing."

Consumers Modernization Work Set At $1,801,555

Sub-Station Allocations Hit $872,980

Lincoln Star Special
COLUMBUS, Neb. — Allocation of $1,801,555 for modernization and expansion of distribution systems in Consumers Public Power District's consolidated eastern system is one of the major items set out in the budget approved at a year end meeting held here.

The work is needed to accommodate increasing loads in many of the towns served.

Other items are $872,980 for new substations and sub-station improvement in many of the load centers, and $837,400 for rebuilding and re-vamping transmission lines to carry higher voltages to key points in Consumer's system.

Belden Project
One of the major transmission line projects is the rebuilding of Consumers $34,500-volt Belden to Hartington line to carry 69,000 volts.

This line will carry Bureau of Reclamation power supplied by the Gavins Point Dam to the joint delivery point at the Belden sub-station. Upon completion this line will provide additional power for Coleridge, Crofton, Boomfield and other communities in the area.

Funds in the budget for the district's western system include $1,534,950 for the completion of the steam generating plant now under construction at Ogallala, $307,650 for distribution system improvements in various communities and $54,300 for modernizing transmission facilities.

Present schedules call for the Ogallala Plant to start supplying additional power throughout Consumers western system by midsummer of 1955.

Irrigation Load Rises
A total of $259,120 has been earmarked for improvement in rural lines in anticipation of increasing irrigation loads in both eastern and western divisions.

Consumers officials also said that unseasonably good weather thus far was a major factor in favor of the completing of over $3,000,000 of system additions and improvements during 1954.

An estimated increase of approximately 6.5 per cent in total kilowatt hour sales for both systems is forecast for 1955. While official figures are not yet available, total sales for the district for 1954 are expected to reach a record of 683,500,000 kilowatt hours.

A tremendous increase in air conditioning and a continued rise in use of electric pump irrigation account for the major portion of growing electrical loads along with new residential, industrial and commercial expansion throughout the state. Consumers officials said.

They also noted that funds provided by the 1955 budget will make possible many improvements in service facilities to adequately provide for the increasing electrical requirements of the district's customers.

At the same meeting Consumers directors set Jan. 7 as the date they will convene for the selection of 1955 officers.

Cigarette Tax Takes Big Drop

Cigarette tax collections for December were slightly lower than in the same month last year, H. L. Wichman, chief of the division, said. Collections were $320,679 compared with $329,436 last year and $302,641 in November.

There was a $115,080 decrease for the year as compared with last year. Collections were $3,868,781 and in 1953 they were $3,983,861.

Curtis Becomes U.S. Senator Today

By DILLON GRAHAM
WASHINGTON (AP)—After 16 years in the house, Carl T. Curtis, Republican, becomes a senator from Nebraska at 12:01 a.m. (EST) Saturday.

By appointment from Gov. Robert Crosby of Nebraska, Curtis succeeds Sen. Hazel Abel (R-Neb.), who has resigned effective at the close of business Friday.

Mrs. Abel was elected last November to serve from election day until Jan. 3. At the same time, Curtis was elected for a six year term beginning in January.

Mrs. Abel announced two weeks ago she would resign Friday so Curtis might be named to succeed her and thus gain seniority over other newly-elected senators who will take office at the start of the new session Wednesday. Seniority helps a senator get better committee assignments.

There will be no ceremony connected with Curtis' change-over to the Senate.

Bates' Penal Study Report Out Monday

Sanford Bates, Newark, N.J., penologist who has been making a survey of Nebraska penal institutions for the Board of Control completed his work Thursday night and spent Friday making his report to the board.

As the State House will be closed Saturday for the legal holiday, Chairman W. H. Diers said that the report would not be released to the public until Monday. This he said would give the board the week-end in which to digest the findings of the penologist.

Bates said that on the basis of the notes he has taken he estimates that the report will consist of about 15 pages. He would give no inkling of his findings either to the board or others.

During preparation of the report he locked himself in an office with only a court reporter to assist him.

In addition to the board copies of the report will go immediately to Gov. Robert Crosby and Gov. elect Victor Anderson, Diers explained.

The board asked Bates to make the survey following a critical report on the penitentiary by a citizens committee named by Gov. Crosby. Bates is a former director of federal prisons and has been warden of state penitentiaries.

During his visit to York Bates said: "You're good housekeepers." He was accompanied on the tour by Mrs. Hattie Bowley, superintendent, and W. H. Diers, chairman, and Mrs. Catherine Martin and Thomas Dredia, members of the Board of Control.

Bates was shown the various rooms of the inmates. He asked about bathing facilities, was shown a room equipped with three showers and three dressing rooms. Each inmate's room has a private toilet. He also visited the dispensary.

He asked, "Where is sick bay?" Mrs. Bowley explained that "with three supervisors on the floor at all times, we feel care can best be given inmates in their own rooms."

Mrs. Bowley said of 293 girls, in the past 10 years who have left the institution, only nine have returned, either because of broken parole or sentence.

Bovey Named As Successor To Knickrehm

Joseph B. Bovey of Lincoln, formerly of Crete, was announced Friday by Gov. elect Victor E. Anderson as superintendent of buildings and grounds effective at the start of the new administration, Jan. 6. He will succeed John Knickrehm, formerly of Grand Island, who has held the post two years.

Anderson said that Bovey has served in the Air Corps and Marine Corps. He was a regional air priorities officer and administrative assistant to the commanding officer of the Air Transport Command. He was also with the Federal Bureau of Prisons for 10 years.

Knickrehm was railway commissioner for six years. He was praised by Anderson for the improvements in care of the capitol he has made in the position.

"I prefer to call the custodianship the superintendent of buildings and grounds and would like to stress my regard for the importance of proper and adequate maintenance of the state's most famous building," Anderson commented.

Anderson expressed the opinion that the position is not necessarily a full time job and said he planned to use Bovey's services in part as an administrative assistant in his own office.

'54 Record Year Here In Building

By BILL DOBLER
Star Staff Writer

Old 1954 is gone but it won't be forgotten in the building records for probably some time as construction activity ended for the year with total estimated costs hitting a record breaking $14,896,929.

A new record was actually established by the end of November, but not to be outdone, December came through with another $1,299,230 push. That makes the new record substantially more than the previous high of $13,058,983 established in 1951.

To help the December total, a record for that month, permits were issued for 157 homes with a total estimated construction cost of $1,075,180. This boosted new home construction to a record high for the year of $11,192,147 for 1,592 permits.

For the past five years, all classes of building activity have a total estimated cost of $62,484,088, more than double the $30,325,518 for the preceding five years.

The Red And Green

Commercial processors have sent tentative feelers throughout the southern and central parts of the state, and the general response of prospective growers would seem to indicate a lively interest in their part in what may well develop into a new and lucrative industrial color in Nebraska fields.

To the sturdy green of our basic corn and the mellow yellow of ripening wheat and other small grains may soon be added a brilliant new hue—the crimson splashes of vast acres of ripening tomatoes. The seaboard commuter, then, who each morning munches warm toast that had an origin in a Nebraska wheatfield may also be drinking his accompanying iced Vitamin C from a similar source.

The farmers of this state are not playing it hard-to-get. They're interested, and they're saying so. In the Holdrege area, for example, 4,200 acres have been pledged from 196 individual returns, with a goal of 6,000 in view, the minimum figure set by the processors. Of this pledge figure, 3,900 acres came under commitment in less than a two-week period. Franklin farmers gathered eagerly in a dinner meeting to listen to and take part in discussions of what has been said may net them as high as $250 for each acre planted. Dawson County fell in line with initial indications of 1,240 acres from the Lexington neighborhood, 370 from Overton, 750 from Gothenburg and 2,200 from Cozart.

And here again irrigation will take its place, since a plentiful supply of water is one of the prime requisites for successful growing of the rosy fruit—the big red that may soon mean long green in the pockets of Nebraska growers.

Man Of The Year

Time had its own yardstick for measuring its choice for "Man of the Year." It was selecting, it said, the individual, who in its judgment exerted the greatest influence—either for good or evil—upon the news in 1954.

It came up with the choice of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, which suggests that Time's selection placed an emphasis upon a good, wholesome news influence. It might have settled for the millions of words and the blaring headlines which Senator Joe McCarthy got through those stormy months of 1954.

Certainly on the basis of travel Secretary Dulles won his laurels. Back and forth across the Atlantic, to the Near East and to the Far East the energetic Secretary of State flew 101,521 miles to grapple with one international crisis after another. Strange thing is that within his own party the choice of John Foster Dulles may not arouse the same enthusiasm Time displays. Mr. Dulles in many particulars, his party critics insist, has adhered too much to the line followed by his predecessor. But in his choice Time has picked, at least in the judgment of many millions of Americans a deserving public servant, who has made his mistakes and yet has shown a remarkable genius for salvaging America's best interests. It has taken a supreme spirit of dedication to overcome the obstacles which have faced Mr. Dulles, possibly some of his own making, some not to be associated with him in any sense.

If the title "Man of the Year" were to be bestowed abroad our choice would be French Premier Pierre Mendes-France. Never has any national leader taken a greater gamble with a volatile people. When the chips were down this man of destiny was willing to stake all, a prodigious gamble if it is to be admitted that part of the opposition to him in his last great battle was a genuine, honest, if mistaken fear of West German re-armament.

Dulles and Mendes-France have one thing in common. They have stumbled at times only to achieve a brilliant recovery.

Promised Change

Among the New Year's resolutions promised by the Eisenhower administration is a bi-partisan handling of problems of state-to what extent yet has not been defined.

The St. Louis Post Dispatch observes that whatever the administration finally does with it certainly the bi-partisan approach will start off with a clean slate.

It points out that 1954 is ending with but one Democrat occupying a high level role in the state department. He is David K. Bruce, Maryland who has been in Paris as President Eisenhower's representative on problems of European unity. But Bruce has already returned to America and has given his resignation to the President.

This is not a very good showing for an administration whose duties involve the representation of feelings of all major variations of thought in an international scene in which it is more important to represent the nation than a political party. Eisenhower's resolution to broaden the representative base promises the good fruits that came from the bi-partisan action under the Roosevelt administration.

Editorial Of The Day

Atomic Goal

(From The St. Louis Post-Dispatch)

Two organizations have now been set up to work outside government for the advancement of peaceful atomic development on an international scale. Their enterprise can only be welcomed in the warmest terms. The more interests that are committed to the cause of non-weapons nuclear science, the more likely we are to witness rapid progress in that direction.

Two months ago a representative group of scientists and engineers organized the American Nuclear Society in this field, and now the Fund for Peaceful Atomic Development has been established under presidency of Walker L. Cislis of Detroit. On its board are such distinguished figures as Robert F. Bacher, who was a member of the first Atomic Energy Commission, Paul G. Hoffman and William C. Foster, both former administrators of ECA, and Joseph M. Dodge, formerly President Eisenhower's budget director.

The first project of the Fund will be to bring to this country a group of industrialists, scientists and engineers from foreign countries, to survey unclassified aspects of nuclear science. Its activities will emphasize "people-to-people" co-operation as a means of backing up President Eisenhower's plan for government-to-government contacts in the international atomic plan which the United Nations recently approved.

It is to be hoped that both the Fund and the Nuclear Society will make no little plans. Every kind of international atomic development they can stimulate will be welcome, of course, but they should not rest until they see an atomic reactor producing power for one of the underdeveloped areas of the world.

Lesser Lights Do Acts Of Service

WASHINGTON — Herewith is a New Year's salute to the following people, big and little, who have done something to make government better, their country greater, and the world a finer place to live in during 1954. To them, some of whom you've never heard of, is given the brass ring, good for one free ride on the Washington Merry-Go-Round.

Stanley McConnell—Of the Federal Supply Service, who saved the Energy Commission about $23,000 by locating 23 brand-new automobiles languishing in a midwest warehouse, put there by a regional AEC bureaucrat who had some surplus money at the end of the year and spent it on autos rather than let it go back to the U.S. treasury.

Thomas S. Proctor—Post office chief of production, who found that mailbags sent to iron curtain countries didn't come back. He substituted cheap burlap bags. Now the Reds don't bother to steal them.

Hal Kleinstuber — of General Services, who found that 400,000 worn-out mailbags had piled up in the post office. They weren't good enough to carry mail, but were too good to throw away. Kleinstuber decided to send them to the Foreign Aid administration where they are now used to carry rice to Indochina.

Helen Kolesz of Lorain, O. — A 72-year-old, Polish-born, naturalized American who set a fabulous record selling government bonds. Feeling it was her duty as a citizen to sell them, she worked through both World Wars, peddled bonds on the street, took trips at her own expense to visit Polish-Americans. Her total sales have never been tabulated, but they run high—in the millions of dollars. She worked until her death just a few days ago.

Federal prisoners at the Atlanta Penitentiary—Who voluntarily allowed themselves to be infected with malaria to help find a cure. As a result, a cure for malaria has just been discovered—the first in history. This disease laid low an equivalent of 16 Army divisions in World War II.

Jiggs Donohue—Former commissioner of the District of Columbia, for defending, without cost, Val Lorwin, the State Department official accused by McCarthy of being a Communist. After four years of accusation and indictment, the Justice Department went into court, said it had no case and asked that the indictment be dismissed.

Val Lorwin—Who, though living under a cloud for four years, did not become bitter. He said the experience showed him how many friends he had.

Joseph A. Fanelli—The Washington attorney who defended Abraham Chasanow, the Navy employee who lived under a security cloud for one year, then was given a public apology by the Navy department.

Luther Youngdahl — The U.S. judge who stuck by his guns when the Justice Department tried to interfere with the constitutional American system of an independent judiciary and make him step down in the Lattimore case.

ARCH DONOVAN

In Step With The Sower

Gone is the slouch from the shoulders of Owen J. Boyles, chief of the Motor Vehicle Division. Instead it is chin up, shoulders back and you-know-what "sucked in."

He is walking with a smart military stride. The change in his attitude has attracted attention and the Sower investigated. We found the secret under the glass cover of his desk.

There is a good reason for the smart "Yes, Sir" and "No Sir" in answer to questions. He is entitled to wear eagles on his shoulders for he is now a Colonel (Kentucky brand).

Gov. Laurence W. Wetherby recently sent him his commission. The smart and chic Mrs. Arthur Carmody, wife of the retired state senator from Trenton, was in Lincoln greeting her host of friends in the state house.

It was hard for Grace to keep the usual cheery smile on her face as she told of the 47 stormy they have had, each of which lasted 24 hours.

Her advice to the Legislature was to think of water rather than to get off on time-consuming bypaths over some silly little bill that usually takes up so much time.

"It is no pleasure to be a housewife out there when you wake up and find rills of dust an inch deep on the floor," she explained.

Col. H. R. "Hobb" Turner is to be in charge of the grand march at the inaugural ball for Gov. Victor E. Anderson. "And it's not easy, with all that protocol and everything," he insists.

Participants in the grand march are to be dressed "formal," he explained. He was busy interviewing the "Emily Posts" of the state

Henry Ford—Whose Ford foundation has been a stalwart champion of American liberties.

Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon—Who despite bitter attacks from politicians in both parties never slackened his battle for the public good, never lost his sense of humor, never lost the earthly touch. After an all-night filibuster, he went out to his farm next day to pack up his chickens for the Gaithersburg, (Md.) fair, where they won 37 prizes.

Jack Howard and Charles Scripps—Who have breathed new energy into the Scripps-Howard newspapers.

Amabassadors Henri Bonnet of France and Alberto Tarchiani of Italy—Two tried and trusted battlers for Democracy who, after years of fighting Fascism and Nazism, have helped to guide the destinies of their countries in the United States. They will be missed as they leave Washington.

Bob Hope—For giving up Christmas at home so many years to entertain American troops in the Arctic.

Bishop Bernard Sheil of Chicago—For his great work for boys.

Father Robert C. Harnett—Editor of the Jesuit magazine, "America," for his courageous and penetrating editorials on McCarthyism.

Rev. A. Powell Davies of Washington—Who has carried the torch so valiantly for tolerance and free speech.

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam—Who, despite unfair attacks by members of the un-American Activities Committee, has not flinched in his fight against witch-hunting.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce of Orange, Va.—Which has re-emphasized freedom of religion, freedom of speech, freedom of the press, and freedom of assembly by developing a park around the tree where James Madison and John Leland planned the First Amendment.

Sam Rayburn, Democrat, and Joe Martin, Republican—Who have shown that under the American system people can differ vigorously on politics, yet remain good friends.

Congressman Chet Holifield—Who, more than anyone else in public life, was responsible for exposing the Dixon-Yates power contract.

Congressman Brooks Hays of Arkansas—Who pioneered the bill for a prayer room in the U.S. Capitol.

Deputy Postmaster General Charles Hook—A young man who gave up a much higher-paying job in private industry to devote his talents to the public service.

This is a cross-section of the kind of people that make America great — and a salute to them on this, the new year.

Under The Dome

Adm. Arthur Radford, the Joint Chiefs' chairman, has quietly revamped the military advisory missions in the Far East and put the Navy in charge of each advisory group. In the past, the Army has run the advisory missions to our Far Eastern allies. But Radford has maneuvered the Navy in charge, so the Navy can control military strategy in the Far East. Stories Of Famous Hymns

Christ For The World We Sing

Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring,
With loving zeal;
The poor, and them that mourn,
The faint and over-borne,
Sin-sick and sorrow-worn,
Whom Christ doth heal.

Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring,
With fervent prayer;
The wayward and the lost,
By restless passion tossed,
Redeemed, at countless cost,
From dark despair.

Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring,
With one accord;
With us the work to share,
With us reproach to dare,
With us the cross to bear,
For Christ our Lord.

Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring,
With joyful song;
The new-born souls, whose days,
Reclaimed from error's ways,
Inspired with hope and praise,
To Christ belong.

By HORACE B. POWELL

That was the slogan which, inscribed in large, evergreen letters over the stage at a state Young Men's Christian Association convention in his home city, greeted Samuel Wolcott, Cleveland pastor, as he entered the convention hall one February night in 1909. Walking alone through the streets, he began to write as he walked. One stanza after another took form and, by the time he reached his residence, he had completed all four verses just as they are sung today. It was natural for Wolcott to be fascinated by the missionary theme which inspired his first hymn for years earlier as a young man, he had served on the foreign mission field in Syria.

Short Of Women

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower's dinner this week for various political associates has been widely heralded as his first step toward reshaping the Republican party into a progressive-moderate force in 1956.

The President's failure to include any women in this important take off is not quite the kind of Christmas present republican women feel they merit. The GOP has at present an excellent group of women leaders who have made a substantial contribution toward the Eisenhower victory.

They have still to be included in any of the President's long list of small dinners for his friends and associates. However, so long as those dinners were confined chiefly to business and financial supporters, they did not matter too loudly. The 1956 take off seems to them another story.

Their trouble is that they have not yet achieved a voice of their own on the White House staff. The President is cordial when they see him by appointment. But they will continue to be at a disadvantage so long as they are not Johnny-on-the-spot when White House decisions are being taken. That the President had a great

Five Wise Men

Maywood, Neb.
To the editor of The Lincoln Star: This is just to show that men can sit down together in peaceful discussion:
I saw five men all in a row
A-standing in the park.
Said I, "Why don't you all sit down.
At least until it's dark?"
Said one, "All day we sing and though
We're happy as the lark.
When darkness falls or shadows frown.
We cry because it's dark."
"Let's sit awhile," said Number Two.
"There's room for five or six
And would hold more if we behave
And shun all politics."

Said Number Three, "I will agree.
The bench is just the size
And made all right for you and me
If we philosophize."
Said Number Four, "Let me add more.
Let's show all the others
How five wise men upon a bench
Can speak and still be brothers."
Said Number Five, "As I'm alive,
You're still getting better,
Let's all sit a little while
And follow to the letter."
So five wise men in peace sat down
And showed to all others
How men by shunning politics
Can speak and still be brothers.

Thank You

Lincoln, Neb.
To the editor of the Lincoln Star: On behalf of the League of Women Voters, I wish to thank you for the fine editorial in Thursday's Star, "Nebraska's Stake in Trade." Your perception of what the league hopes to do is most gratifying and will be of much encouragement as we continue our study of trade relations with other countries, and your discussions will be welcomed by many readers, I am sure.

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

Happy New Year to you, Partner, in the tradition of a hospitable, kindly, neighborly, warm-hearted mid-America!

This year which came to a close with the striking of the midnight hour had a special significance for Nebraskans. It marked the centennial of Nebraska Territory. Neither young nor old, wearing its achievements in becoming modest pride — Nebraska may gaze out upon a bright new year in reasonably confident spirit. This state has come a long way, much of the time the hard way. It has had few if any windfalls. It has had to fight for what it has got. The big job ahead calls for planning—an inspired type of planning—unselfish to a marked degree—characterized by a competence to distinguish between what really helps and what though outwardly more appealing actually may prove to be far less substantial in its contribution to growth. There is a place for boldness and for imagination in this planning. The foundation rests upon a comprehensive, accurate knowledge of Nebraska, of what is within the realm of possibility here, and what though desirable may have to be ruled out because it happens to be beyond our grasp. It is not difficult to project Nebraska's needs. They are relatively simple. We need more people, which means a growing population; more industry, which means jobs to provide employment for people, payrolls to keep hands busy, mounting industrial activity to supplement and strengthen the wealth which comes from the soil. We need an improved agriculture, magnificent as Nebraska's agriculture record has been. To achieve that and to give it stability, we need to concentrate upon that which carries assurance of making the most beneficial use of water and its counterpart, good earth.

If in the next hundred years the men who serve Nebraska in a public sense, occupying the offices of an executive, judicial and legislative character, reveal the same qualities of integrity and good purpose, then the people will have added cause for gratitude. We have had good government. There have been few states, indeed, where honesty has been held in such high esteem. Few states have been able to purchase so much in the form of devoted, dedicated service at such a small cost.

Earlier in the week a well known American, Cyrus Eaton, financier and industrialist was toying with an idea which he thought is the answer to one of the needs of our times. He owns a luxurious estate north of the border.

He has come to the conclusion that he should make it available to the best thinkers America can produce in all fields to enable them to utilize it as a retreat for leisurely discussions. Those who gathered there would have no official status. The conclusions they reached would be findings of a group of private citizens. "We need to encourage the best thought which can be made available to the world," it was said. "That is the kind of a world in which we live." We assume some Nebraska governor some day will be free to give himself over completely to so-called creative thought, pushing aside the day-by-day cares of public office. He will devote every ounce of his energy and his entire thought to an outline calculated to strengthen this state in a material sense. We could count upon response. Public-spirited citizens can be found in every community in this state and out on its farms. Nebraska is waiting for this type of leadership. Its people at heart and in spirit are creative.

We may be described as conservative, as cautious, as frugal or as thrifty, but basically the one dominant characteristic of Nebraskans is to build better. We know that the labors of statehood are never finished. We know they are continuing. And if the job is well done, then what follows always will be better than what it was.

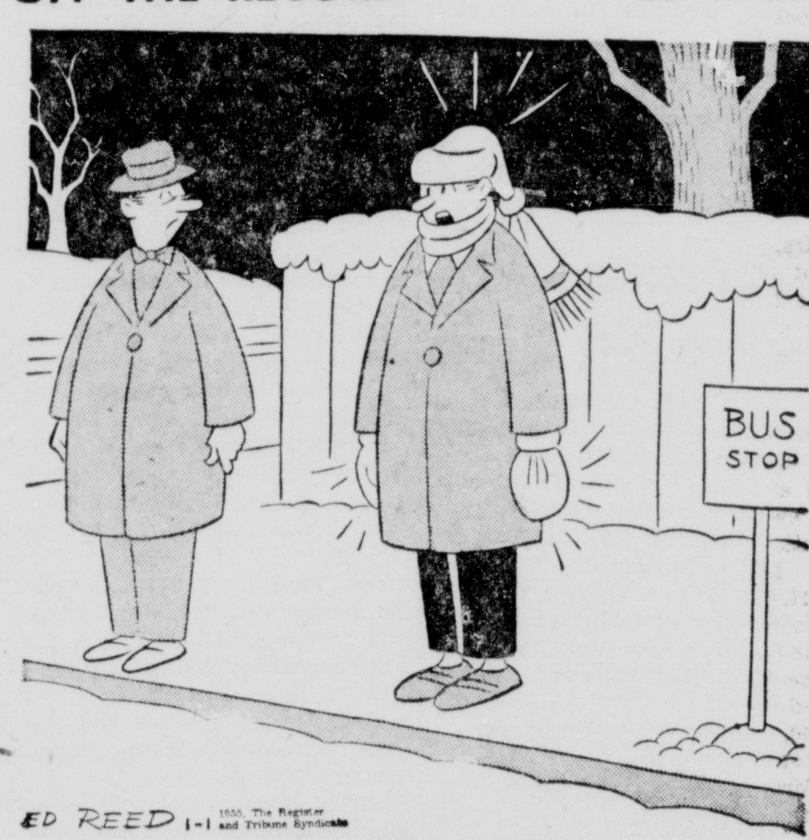

Santa Claus Bowl Champs

Naturally the youngsters, Lincoln's midwest football squad, who traveled to Florida to exhibit their wares in the Santa Claus Bowl were prouder than Puck, and with good reason.

They established their right in most convincing fashion to the title of champions. There was nothing flukish in their victories. Through the two rounds, these youngsters demonstrated fully that they were the cream of the crop. A lot of people back home, delighted and none the less proud than the players themselves, were pulling for them.

TOWN TALK

WELL, well—AND well—we're off to a fresh start on a brand new year—365 days of who knows what. We're certain of one thing—there will be no lag in the news—there will be no lack of betrothals—and—there will be no shrinkage in the bride's book—And by the way—since this is the very first day of January, you might be interested in learning that already there are 30 names on the June bride's list.

BUT this is no morning to be talking about June brides, as charming as they may be—This is the morning to talk about winter travelers—New Year's Eve parties, and homecomers—It's also the morning to announce that Mr. and Mrs. Milton Blankenship have joined the ranks of dotting grandparents—Their grandson, James Colegrove Blankenship, arrived in Westwood, N. J., on Thursday, Dec. 30—The young man's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John (Jack) Blankenship of Westwood, and his mother is the former Marian Colegrove daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Colegrove of Evanston, Ill.

THOSE winter holiday days we mentioned are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Flansburg who are, at the moment, in Mexico City where they are headquarters at Hotel Bamer—We suspect, however, that the Flansburgs will not confine their stay in Mexico to Mexico City, but eventually they will be wending their way to Acapulco—menely a guess, of course.

SOMEONE told us that Mr. and Mrs. Mark Pierce are just back in town after a two weeks stay in Dallas, Tex., where they were the guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Pierce and their children, Tommy and Virginia Sue—and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ellsworth and their daughter, Kathy.

THE young crowd was predominant in New Year's Eve celebrations here and there last evening—At a no host table at the University Club on Friday evening were 10 couples who planned to spend the after dinner hours dancing at the Lincoln Country Club—Included in the group were Miss Nan Carlson, Monroe Usher, Miss Susie Swingle, Bernard Randolph, Miss Sally Wilson, Bob Ireland, Miss Ann Pickett, William Parks, Miss Jenette Turner Harry Dingman, Miss Mary Lynn Stafford, Frank Winter, Miss Phyllis Williamson, Matt Taber, Miss Judy Chapman, Jack Clark, Miss Mgrynna Gould, Dick Hergenrader, Miss Pam Spieler and Dick Cavett.

THIS is the day that Mr. and Mrs. Selmer Solheim observe an annual custom—a coffee for their friends between the hours of 11 o'clock and 2 o'clock, at their home.

Was A Friday Bride

Arrangements of pink gladioli and white pom poms appointed the chancel, and lighted cathedral candles marked the precesional aisle of the Southminster Evangelical United Brethren Church for the wedding of Miss Patricia Ann McKay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. McKay, and Jerry Hamilton Custer, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Custer, which took place on Friday evening, Dec. 31. The 7:30 o'clock ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Marvin Herrick, and Mrs. Ernest Sellmeyer, organist, who played the wedding music, also accompanied the vocal soloist, Rod Barker.

Mrs. Robert G. Stoner, as the matron of honor, wore a frock of ciel blue taffeta, fashioned with an off-shoulder fitted bodice, and a wide, circular skirt veiled with a matching net. She carried a colonial bouquet of pale yellow carnations. The bridesmaid, Miss Lona Larsen and Miss Shirley DeBoer, appeared in Copenhagen blue frocks styled identically to that worn by the matron of honor. Their flowers were deep pink carnations. Linda Kay Whitlow, in baby blue taffeta, was the flower girl, and David Lloyd Whitlow carried the ring. The candlelighters, Miss Betty Whitlow and Miss Janeen Geiger, wore blue choir robes.

William Custer served his brother as best man, and the ushers were William Griffin and Don Davis.

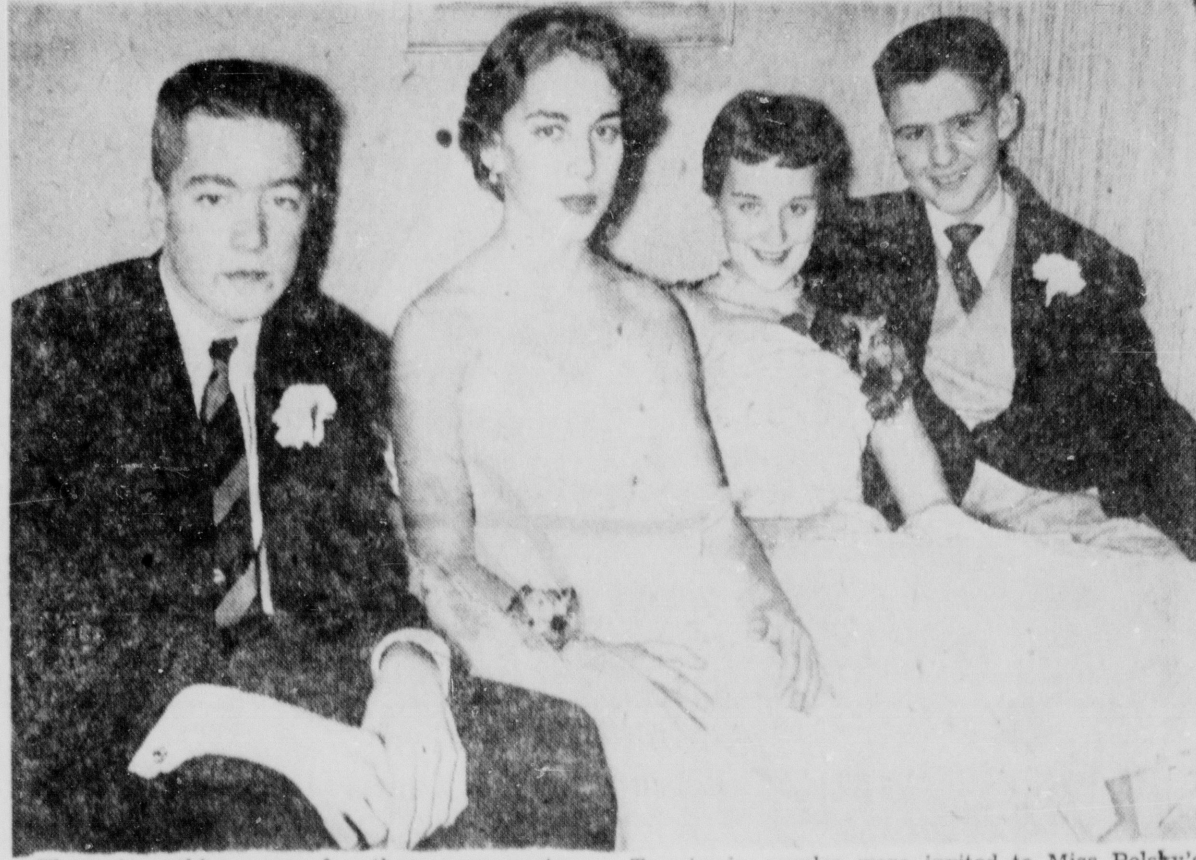

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of Infanta blue lace over matching taffeta. The long-sleeved fitted bodice, with its deep V neckline, narrowed to the waist beneath which the bouffant skirt was created of triple flounces of lace. Her calot of lace-over-taffeta was in the tone of her gown, and she carried a colonial bouquet of pale pink carnations and sweetheart roses.

Following the reception, held in the church parlors for the 200 wedding guests, the families and bridal party were entertained at the home of the bride's parents.

For the honeymoon trip, after which Mr. Custer and his bride will reside at 4105 Warwick Blvd., Kansas City, Mo., Mrs. Custer wore a black velvet frock with black accessories. Pinned to her shoulder was a corsage of sweetheart roses.

The bride is a member of Lambda Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, business girls' sorority, and Mr. Custer is a student of commercial art at the Kansas City Art Institute.

Hostess At A Pre-Party Party

There is nothing more fun than a pre-party—unless it is the party itself—and unless, of course the party happens to be the Christmas Ball.

On Thursday evening, preceding the traditional ball at the Lincoln Country club, Miss Renee Polsky was hostess at a "coke" party at her home.

Twenty-six couples were invited to Miss Polsky's home before the group took off for dancing at the club.

Woman Talk PTA Council Plans Panel

It would seem that women may have a choice of almost everything in the way of color, fabrics, and this and that spring—BUT—if she would be smart, sleek and fashionable, the "new look" is a must. The new look, by the way, is only half new—It combines 1955's higher bust with 1954's slim-hipped sheath—and that's it.

We are told that navy is to be away out in front in the color department for spring—and running about 50 per cent behind are all shades of beige and browns—grays will be good—and the mauve tones will be popular, according to our local sources.

From New York fashion centers, however, comes a prediction that is more to our liking, since in navy blue we have a striking resemblance to a dead oyster—New York says that the mint tints are to be ultra-fashionable—shadings of frosty green that range from lime to Kelly—and for spring, the cooler looking, the better. Of course, New York may have resort spots in mind other than Lincoln and Nebraska—but both New York and our local fashion experts agree upon one thing at least—the print. Print frocks, print costumes (the dress and jacket) are to be especially smart. And some of the costume affairs are designed with low necklines—and some with high.

New York and Lincoln agree again on the shirt-waist dress which is to be a must in the wardrobe of every well dressed woman. The shirt-waist dress comes into its own for late afternoon wear, too, but the after-five frocks have more ornamentation.

We wondered what would happen to the wide, wide petticoats that gave Milady such a swish feeling—and we learned that petticoats again would be worn, but that the old ones won't do—The new petticoat must be shaped at the waistline and do its flaring later on—down by the hem. But in case you aren't a petticoat wearer, never mind—many of the new styles won't take them, for the sheath skirt is in to stay—for a while, at least.

Writers Guild To Hold Dinner

The regular dinner-meeting of the Lincoln Writers Guild will be held at 6 o'clock, Monday evening, at the YWCA. Following a short business meeting at 7 o'clock, the members will read original manuscripts for criticism.

N. U. CONFIDENT AND READY

Bill Gives Final Words

Nebraskans Still Underdogs; Two Soph Backs Will Start

By DON BRYANT
Sports Editor, The Star

MIAMI, Fla.—Confident and eager, the University of Nebraska Cornhuskers meet the Blue Devils of Duke in the fabulous Orange Bowl New Year's Day. Game time is 1 p.m., Lincoln time.

While newspaper odds in the sun capital of Florida tab the Huskers as 13 to 13½ point underdogs in their second bowl venture, the boys with money are looking high and low for that many points.

Despite the constant non-flattering jibes at the Cornhuskers by the local press, the size, condition and spirit of the Nebraska boys seems to have rubbed off on the bettors. Ten to 10½ points seems to be the general line with 13 almost impossible to get.

A full-house of some 68,000 fun-loving tourists and money-loving natives will jam the Orange Bowl at 12:30 Lincoln time Saturday to witness the pre-game festival. A Giant halftime extravaganza is also scheduled for the fans here and the millions of Americans who will witness the colorful pageantry via television.

Both Ready

Both teams appear to be ready and willing from the physical and mental standpoints and the indications are that a fine ball game could be in the offing.

Coach Bill Glassford finally settled on his starting lineup Friday noon. While the line has been ready, he's had to worry about Ron Clark's inability to hit full speed because of an ankle sprain.

Reason Obvious

While Bill didn't state his reason for risking two sophomores in the starting unit, it is fairly obvious.

Nebraska will be trading a little experience for some big and strong backs—and chances are they'll be named right at a fellow by the name of Tracy Moon, Glassford doesn't make a habit of announcing his strategy, but it will be a surprise if the Huskers don't run a lot of wide stuff and make life miserable for the Blue Devil's small winger.

Clark will be able to see action and he'll team with Dennis Korinek on the No. 2 team, quarterbacked by Don Erway and John Edwards at fullback. Clark at 177, and Korinek at 172, are lighter than Comstock and Greenlaw 178 and 192, respectively.

Hard Pass Drills

Nebraska has been drilling hard on passing all week, but the Huskers will stick to their usual running game, if all goes well.

Duke, on the other hand, seems to be counting on the air, with passers Sunny Jurgenson and Jerry Barger apparently ready to fling with abandon.

Halfback Bob Pascal and Fullback Bryant Aldridge will be on hand to balance the Blue Devil attack with tried and tested efficiency.

Nebraska headquarters at the Flamingo Hotel has an air of confidence, relying on insiders from the local press, the underdog role and Duke overconfidence to stir the Cornhusker to victory.

All the players are talking of nothing but winning, and spirit is the thing that can determine the winner.

So now the long wait begins.

Near Half Million Fans Will Be In Bowls Today

Crowds Will Pay About $2½ Million; Navy's First Appearance In 30 Years To Add Color

By JACK HAND
The Associated Press

Navy's first bowl appearance in 30 years adds an extra dash of color to the annual New Year's day college football carnival today that will attract about 450,000 paying $2,500,000 into stadia from Pasadena to Miami.

The decision of Navy (7-2-0) to accept the Sugar Bowl invitation to play Mississippi (9-1-0), Southeastern Conference champs at New Orleans after its fine victory over favored Army was a surprise reversal of form by the service academy, which has shunned post-season play in recent years.

Navy, the No. 5 team in the nation, and Mississippi, No. 6, provide the only contest between teams ranked among the Top Ten in the final Associated Press poll. They will rip and tear before a sellout house of more than 82,000.

Draw Top Billing

Ohio State (9-0-0), the No. 1 team in the AP poll, draws top billing in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena where 100,300 will watch the powerful Buckeyes with their speedy All-America back, Hopalong Cassidy, go against Southern California (8-3-0), second best in the Pacific Coast Conference. A Ohio-UCLA pairing of unbeaten champs was ruled out by the agreement between the Big Ten and the Coast because UCLA played last Jan. 1.

Where Alabama's Tommy Lewis dashed off the bench to tackle Rice's Dick Moegele a year ago, Arkansas (8-2-0), Southwest Conference kings, meets Georgia Tech (7-3-0) with another jam-packed throng of 75,000 already clutching their tickets.

68,000 At Orange Bowl

Duke (7-2-1), winner of the Atlantic Coast Conference title, clashes with Nebraska (6-4), runner-up to Oklahoma in the Big Seven, before 68,000 in the Orange Bowl at football-minded Miami.

Three All-America players will be in the starting lineups for the annual East-West All-Star game at San Francisco, due to attract 60,000. Notre Dame's Ralph Guglielmi is expected to direct the East attack at starting quarterback, despite a heavy cold, and All-America halfback Moegele of Rice and tackle Jack Ellena of UCLA will play for the West.

Tigers Down Baylor

The weekend bowl parade opened yesterday at Jacksonville, Fla., where Auburn smothered Baylor 33-13 in the Gator Bowl. Auburn's power-driving Joe Childress teamed with Bobby Freeman, the Tigers' brilliant field general, to drive the Southeastern Conference team to victory over the Southwest Conference Bears. Quarterback Billy Hooper's passing was the bright spot in Baylor's defeat.

Other bowl pairings today are: SUN BOWL at El Paso, Tex.; Texas Western (7-3-0) vs. Florida State (8-3-0).

TANGERINE BOWL at Orlando, Fla. (night) Omaha University (8-0-0) vs. Eastern Kentucky (8-0-0).

SALAD BOWL at Phoenix, Ariz.—Salad Conference All-Stars vs. Border Conference All-Stars.

PRAIRIE BOWL at Houston—Prairie View College (8-0-1) vs. Texas Southern (3-2-3).

And tomorrow: SHRIMP BOWL at Galveston, Tex.—Ft. Ord (Calif.) (11-1-1) vs. Ft. Hood (Texas) (10-3).

In addition to the estimated 450,000 who will watch the games in person, millions will see the play on television and listen on network radio broadcasts.

Auburn Runs Wild For 33-13 Gator Bowl Win

By MERCER BAILEY

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Joe Childress, Auburn's jet-propelled fullback, and Bobby Freeman, a brilliant field general, ripped Baylor defenses to shreds Friday for a sweet 33-13 Gator Bowl football triumph.

It was a particularly pleasing victory for the Southeastern Conference power, atoning somewhat for the Tigers' humiliating 35-13 loss to Texas Tech in the Jan. 1, 1954, Gator Bowl.

With its passing attack hampered by injuries to star end Jim Pyburn, Auburn set a new Gator Bowl rushing record of 423 yards before a near capacity crowd of 36,000.

Much of the glory for the lopsided victory should go to Auburn linemen, particularly tackle M. L. Brackett, who outplayed the Baylor forewell consistently and opened the holes for their backfield mates. Brackett twice caused Baylor fumbles and Auburn went on to touchdowns.

Childress, a 195-pound speedster from Robertsdale, Ala., scored two touchdowns, kicked three conversions and gained yardage in great hunks all day. He got over 100 yards in the first half. Playing only

Orange Bowl Pact Renewed For 3 Years

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A three-year renewal of the Orange Bowl's contract with the Big Seven and Atlantic Coast Conference was signed Friday, carrying the rivalry through the 1958 New Year's Day game.

It included a whopping pay raise for the conferences. Starting next year, each circuit will receive about $203,000, compared with about $131,000 for today's game between Duke and Nebraska.

The Columbia Broadcasting Co. will pay a total of $825,000 for television and radio rights to the three games.

Included in the new contract is a clause providing that if NCAA action is taken against one of the Orange Bowl teams, barring it from a post-season game, the Bowl can either pick another team from the same conference or go into the open market.

The clause was brought about by the NCAA's action this year placing the University of Miami on one year's probation on charges of conducting illegal tryouts for athletes and paying their transportation to the campus.

This barred Miami from accepting a bowl bid, at a time when the powerful Hurricanes appeared a sure bet for either the Sugar or Cotton Bowls.

Signing the new agreement for the Atlantic Coast group were Chuck Erickson, North Carolina; Eddie Cameron, Duke, and Red Enright, South Carolina. Signing for the Big Seven were Dr. Warren Thompson, Colorado, and Dean DeWitt Carr, Kansas.

Statistics
JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Statistics of the Gator Bowl game:

First downs	16	25
Rushing yards	105	423
Passing yards	134	134
Passes attempted	18	7
Passes completed	10	3
Fumbles lost	4	2
Punting average	42	41
Fumbles lost	4	2
Yards penalized	25	82

part time in the second half, he wound up with a total of 134.

Baylor's backs, led by the bullet passing of quarterback Billy Hooper, piled up a lot of yards, but they were no match for Auburn's speed, power, deception and defense.

Auburn started its scoring spree immediately after the opening kickoff to the Southwestern Conference Bears. Brackett racked up sophomore Del Shofner and separated him from the ball. Dave Middleton, another dangerous Auburn runner, recovered on Baylor's 27 and in five plays Childress rumbled over the 7.

The other Tiger scores came on a dazzling 43-yard twisting run by Fob James, a 4-yard pass from Freeman to end Jim Long, a 5-yard smash by Childress and a 5-yard keep by Freeman.

Baylor laid no claims to a great defense but no one expected Auburn to score almost at will. The Tigers didn't have to punt until the fourth quarter.

Auburn scored 7-0 4-0 10-0 3-3

Baylor scoring: Touchdowns, Saage, Dure, Conversion, Smith.

Auburn scoring: Touchdowns, Childress 2, James, Long, Freeman, Conversions, Childress 3.

The Columbia Broadcasting Co. will pay a total of $825,000 for television and radio rights to the three games.

Included in the new contract is a clause providing that if NCAA action is taken against one of the Orange Bowl teams, barring it from a post-season game, the Bowl can either pick another team from the same conference or go into the open market.

Tangerine Bowl Boasts Two Undefeated Teams

By DON BRYANT

Sports Editor, The Star

ORLANDO, Fla., (INS)—The University of Omaha and Eastern Kentucky, two of the nation's best small college teams, meet in the Tangerine Bowl at Orlando tonight in the only post-season affair matching two undefeated elevens.

The Indians from Omaha record and have won their last 13 in a row. Eastern Kentucky, from Richmond, Ky., won eight this year and tied one.

The Indians feature a strong passing game and scored 18 touchdowns during the season via the aerial route. Key man in Coach Lloyd Cardwell's single-wing attack is left half Bill Engelhardt who racked up 1,645 yards in total offense this year.

Top performer for Glenn Presnell's maroons is tailback Don Daley. Daley connected on almost half of his passing attempts this season.

The contest is expected to draw 12,000 fans.

Ohio State Firm 2-TD Favorite

By BOB MYERS

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Ohio's State's unbeaten Buckeyes, the nation's No. 1 football team, Friday night remained a firm two-touchdown favorite to defeat Southern California today and give the Big Ten its eighth victory in nine games in the Rose Bowl with the Pacific Coast Conference.

With few exceptions the experts picked the explosive talents of the Buckeyes' Howard (Hopalong) Cassidy, Hubert Bobo and Bobby Watkins, guided by quarterback Dave Leggett, to throw back the challenge of the Trojans, a team beaten three times during the regular season.

Kickoff time is set for 2 p.m. (4 p.m. CST) with the pre-game warmup going on at 3:45 p.m. Mel Allen announcing for the National Broadcasting Co. NBC will also air the game on its radio network.

The weatherman predicted cool and cloudy weather, with temperatures near 60. The field is fast after two rainless weeks.

The visitors and the home squad exercised lightly Friday, and then went into seclusion. The Trojans remained at the fashionable Town House in Los Angeles.

Hoops Wools Switch—Coach Woody Hayes of OSU pulled a switch. He shifted his squad from Pasadena's Huntington-Sheraton Hotel to Sacred Heart Academy, a girls' school high in the Flintridge Hills just north of the Rose Bowl itself.

Neither Hayes, who herded Ohio State through a schedule of nine games without a loss and on to the top spot in The Associated Press national poll, nor Coach Jess Hill of USC made a flat prediction on the outcome of the game.

There was no doubt, however, that Hayes expects to win, and Hill is determined to win—if possible.

Columbus To Have Team, Says Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Columbus Dispatch said flatly Friday this city will have a baseball team in the International League in 1955.

Brad Wilson, Dispatch sports editor, writing from Pasadena, Calif., where he had gone to cover the Rose Bowl game, said purchase of the franchise from Kansas City and the 14,500-seat Red Bird Stadium here from the St. Louis Cardinals for more than a half-million dollars, will be announced soon after Jan. 1.

He said a group of Columbus sportsmen, industrialists and business men saved baseball for Columbus by raising the money for both the franchise and the ball park.

Members of the Columbus group will go to St. Louis during the first week in January to complete negotiations, Wilson said.

Ottawa, Canada, presently holds the International League franchise which, under the reported plan, would be transferred to Columbus. The franchise is owned by the Kansas City Athletics, who inherited the Ottawa club from the old Philadelphia Athletics.

Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf of University of California is head coach of the West. Among the West players is his own outstanding quarterback, Paul Larson.

The first East-West game was played Dec. 26, 1925, with about 20,000 spectators crowded into old Ewing Field. The West won 7-0, with Harold (Brick) Muller catching a pass tossed by T. W. (Tut) Imlay. The game has been held annually since then.

Kids Profit In East-West Battle Today

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Players from the East meet those of the West in the annual Shrine football game here today—so that crippled children can be aided.

The weatherman forecast sunny skies for the colorful event.

It will be the 30th East-West game, with players from all parts of the nation participating.

Kezar Stadium, which seats about 60,000, was sold out months ago, with gross receipts of $275,000.

Change Kickoff Time—The kickoff, originally set for 3:30 p.m. (CST), was changed to 3:50 p.m. because of television commitments.

The West reportedly has its strongest team in years, but is only a slight favorite. There is one big uncertainty—whether Ralph Guglielmi, Notre Dame's star quarterback, will be able to play.

Guglielmi was hospitalized Thursday with a chest cold and a high fever. Dr. Ed Amaral, physician for the East team, said shots Thursday night. Dr. Amaral informed Dr. Eddie Anderson, the East's coach, that he "believed Guglielmi would definitely be able to play against the West."

Waldorf Leads West—Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf of University of California is head coach of the West. Among the West players is his own outstanding quarterback, Paul Larson.

The first East-West game was played Dec. 26, 1925, with about 20,000 spectators crowded into old Ewing Field. The West won 7-0, with Harold (Brick) Muller catching a pass tossed by T. W. (Tut) Imlay. The game has been held annually since then.

England Beaten—England was dismissed with 191 runs Friday in the first innings of the third test cricket match against Australia. Only a fighting stand of 120 by Colin Cowdrey saved the visitors from complete disaster. The test series stands at one match each.

Seton Hall Wins—SOUTH ORANGE, N.J. (AP)—Seton Hall University trounced Gonzaga University, 92-70, here Friday night for the Pirates' eighth basketball victory in nine starts.

Milwaukee defeated New York 89-64 in the first contest behind the rebounding and shooting of Lou Hitch.

Medicated Navy Now Underdogs

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW ORLEANS — Navy's medicated football team will have to play its Sugar Bowl game against Mississippi today without Jim Royer, rugged tackle, and Phil Monahan, captain and halfback.

Doctors gave Coach Eddie Erdelatz the word Friday and odds on the 21st annual New Year's game here immediately shifted to make the Ole Miss Southeastern Conference squad the favorite by a point and a half. The week started with Navy preferred by three points.

Weaver To Play
The medics, however, said that John Weaver, regular left halfback, would play but were non-committal regarding Bob Craig, the right halfback, who is hospitalized with tonsillitis. Their attitude indicated that Craig would be available to the Midshipmen in their first bowl contest in 30 years.

X-ray pictures showed that Royer suffered a possible chipping of the hip bone. He will see the game as a spectator.

Monahan may make a token appearance. He has been able to play only 30 minutes all year because of knee trouble. Weaver has missed the final three practices here because of a pulled leg muscle.

Healthy Rebels
The woes of the Navy were in sharp contrast to the health of the 50-man Mississippi team. Only Bob Adams, a co-regular end, will not play.

Coach Johnny Vaught cancelled the brief workout scheduled for his Rebel team on the Tulane Stadium turf because of the day's constant rain.

Navy held a brief workout. The stadium field has no cover but its drainage is such that it dries out quickly.

The weatherman predicted the showers would wear themselves out during the night and that the skies would be cloudy and the temperature in the low 70's at the 1 p.m. (CST) kickoff. The game will be televised and broadcast (ABC).

Navy Outweighed
Should the turf be slow, Mississippi might become even a greater favorite. The Rebels, the nation's leading defensive team, outweigh the Middles 15 pounds a man on the line and have great reserve strength. Power is one of the Rebel's greatest assets.

Anything that might further interfere with the precision of the patched up Navy backfield would enhance Ole Miss' chances even more.

Both teams attack from the T and split-T formations and have outstanding national reputations statistically.

Navy was rated No. 5 in the final Associated Press poll of the 1954 season and Mississippi was sixth. Defensively, Mississippi is the country's No. 1 team. Navy finished ninth after having held the top spot much of the season.

Powerful Attacks
Offensively, the figures show Navy has the fourth best attack in the nation, Mississippi fifth best.

Each team comes into the fray, for which all 80,735 tickets were sold weeks ago, with a full fledged All America attraction. Rex Reed Ergan, a tackle, is the Rebel hero with Ron Beagle, an end, the Navy star.

Erdelatz was not certain who would start in place of Royer. It will be either Pat McCool or Hugh Webster.

"No matter who plays, we will give a good account of ourselves," was his only comment.

John (Red) Marion, new manager of the Louisville Colonels in the American Assn., is a brother of Marty Marion, White Sox manager.

Duquesne Is Champion In Holiday Meet

NEW YORK — Duquesne retained its ECAC Holiday Festival tournament championship by beating LaSalle, the NCAA titleholder, 67-65, in Friday night's final game at Madison Square Garden.

A tremendous effort from a game Dick Ricketts, who limped with an ankle injury in the first half, and the bouncing Si Green, carried the Dukes from Pittsburgh to victory.

LaSalle's All-America Tom Gola topped the game's scorers with 30 points.

The Dukes, with 23 points by both Green and Ricketts, had to fight desperately in the second half—twice taking the lead away from LaSalle—after holding a clear-cut 32-27 lead at the half.

It was the final game of a wind-up tripleheader which drew 12,135 fans. UCLA defeated Dayton 104-92 for third place and Niagara defeated St. John's of Brooklyn 79-70 for fifth.

Gola, voted the outstanding player of the tournament and the leading scorer with 90 points for the three games, was pestered alternately by Green and Ricketts but, like Ricketts, left no doubt of his All-America standing.

La Salle took over the lead at 41-40 with less than six minutes played in the second half, only to lose it again as Green put in a jump-shot for a 47-45 lead just before the 10 minute point. That started a string of 12 straight points by Duquesne.

The Explorers, No. 3 team in the nation but now three-time losers, struggled back into the lead with six minutes left as Gola hit a jump-shot. But the Dukes came right back for a 53-57 advantage they never relinquished.

From then on Duquesne was in the driver's seat with LaSalle futilely trying to get back.

Dick Ricketts ran his free throw string to 32 in succession in this tournament before missing. He played the last 30 minutes with a painful right ankle which he injured as he came down off the board midway in the first half.

Gola, assigned to Dick Ricketts, finished the game with four personal fouls as did both Dick Ricketts and Green.

Gola, who was held to only one field goal in the first half, came through with 20 points in the last half while holding Dick Ricketts to 9.

The UCLA-Dayton game was a wide-open affair, with the UCLANS leading 51-35 at the half and then coasting the rest of the way on a steady 10-point margin.

UCLA's total broke the one-team collegiate record of 103 points for a Garden game set by New York University against Arizona in 1951 and equalled by LaSalle in the first round of this tournament against Syracuse.

Jack Saltee, Dayton's take-charger forward, was the high scorer of the third-place game with 26 points. Morris Taft, who broke into the starting line-up after a sensational first-round game, topped UCLA with 24.

Border Conference Favored Over Skyline In Salad Bowl

PHOENIX, Ariz. — The Border Conference All-Stars go into today's Salad Bowl football game two-touchdown favorites but the Skyline Conference team threatens to blow the game wide open.

The edge given the Border seniors stems mainly from the fact that the starting lineup contains eight Texas Tech players and the squad's head coach is DeWitt Weaver of Tech.

Skyline's head coach John Rong of Utah State had this to say: "We figure we're outweighed and that big nucleus of Texas Tech players will help the Border, too. We plan to throw a lot and it'll be a wide open game as far as we're concerned. We just want to do our best and make a battle of it, and we're not going to be run off the field."

Explosive Ground Game
Although the Border squad has polished its passing to a fine point, the backfield is geared for an explosive ground game.

Martin's Almanac Tells All For 1955

By WHITNEY MARTIN
NEW YORK — Herewith is presented the 1955 edition of the Martin Little Giant Sports Almanac, that priceless preview of the coming year which tells the news before it happens.

Occasionally accuracies creep in to the informatica possibly because it is edited by a creep, but every effort has been made to maintain the high standard of misinformation which was marked it in the past. We are omitting the sunrises and sunsets as superfluous. It always has.

Anyway, here it is:

JANUARY
Ohio State, Duke, Navy, Georgia Tech, Omaha and Texas Western win bowl games. Archie Moore demands shot at Rocky Marciano. Is told it's out of season, and to lay that pistol down. Dodgers talk of trade. Find they're talking to themselves.

FEBRUARY
Baseball plays began to stir, but only their coffee, as spring training is banned until March 1. Wes Santee wins Wanamaker Mile in 4:05.3. Stray dog wanders into Madison Square Garden and wins best-in-show honors at Westminster Kennel Club event. Ted Williams signs Red Sox contract. Gives reason: "Fish ain't bit in."

MARCH
Kentucky wins NCAA basketball crown, and Dayton wins Garden invitation. Ball players quit stirring. Too sore in the joints. Mayo Smith assembles Phillie squad, says: "Who are these guys, anyway?" Rocky Marciano kayoes Don Cockell in four.

April
Peter Thomson wins Masters golf to avenge Australian Davis Cup defeat. Kansas City enthused as Athletics get away to good start. Stan Musial hits four home runs in game. Apologizes.

MAY
Nashua wins Kentucky Derby.

Notice to Bidders
Sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Education of the School District of Lincoln, Nebraska, at the office of the City Clerk, up to 10 o'clock a.m., Central Standard Time, Tuesday, January 4, 1955, for furnishing labor and materials required to relocate the city water main in Randolph Street between 22nd and 23rd Streets at Lincoln, Nebraska, in accordance with plans and specifications as prepared by Davis and Wilson, Architects of Lincoln, Nebraska. Plans and specifications are now available.

Plans may be inspected at the office of the Board of Education, Lincoln, Nebraska, at the office of the Architect, 226 Stuart Building, Lincoln, Nebraska; at the Omaha Builders Exchange, 1805 Harvey Street, Omaha, Nebraska; at Dodge Reports, Sunderland Bldg., Omaha, Nebraska; and at the Lincoln Builders Bureau, Chamber of Commerce Building, Lincoln, Nebraska.

Contractors who wish to bid on the work may obtain a set of plans and specifications for their individual use by applying to the Architect. No deposit will be required. Each successful contractor will be required to furnish a corporate surety performance bond in a sum equal to 100% of the contract price.

No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of thirty days after the scheduled closing time for the receipt of bids. Each bid shall be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check for 5% of the amount of the bid, or, as an alternate, the bidder may submit a bid bond with an authorized surety company as surety, payable to the School District of Lincoln, Nebraska as liquidated damages in case the person or company whom the Board of Education awards the contract fails or refuses to enter into the contract and furnish a satisfactory performance bond in the penal sum of the full amount of contract price within ten days of the notice of such award. If a certified or cashier's check or a bid bond as herein set forth is not received with proposal, same will not be considered.

The Board of Education reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to waive any informalities in any proposal. Proposals will be received until 2:00 P.M., Tuesday, January 4, 1955 at the office of the Board of Education, 720 South 22nd Street, Lincoln, Nebraska, at which time they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

BAERING DOWN ON THE NEWS By Arthur 'Bugs' Baer

(Distributed by International News Service)

You've heard about the star reporter who covered the feast of Belshazzar and missed the handwriting on the wall.

We've also skipped many a mural marginal notation on the outdoor billboards. With the start of the new year it might work out okay.

Like a boy doing his home-work on the school-bus there have been some shaky moments down in Washington.

Some of our senators have been declaring individual war on Asian powers. That embarrasses our good will ambassadors who have been eating pigeon pie via instructions.

That's what Congress is for in times of stress and peril. We have been rereading Adams, Jefferson, Jackson, Beveridge, Borah, Ickes and the other spiel-binders. It's easy to declare war when you're using an aisle for a parallel and a desk for a redoubt.

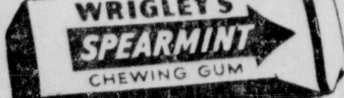

We can start the new year by following Teddy Roosevelt's words and music for the hickory promenade. Walk softly and carry a big stick.

Happy New Year
